Have a residence home in the Euro-Mediterranean Forum For Cultural Diversity ..

Or hire a shop in the first Euro-Mediterranean market for cultural goods.

IN SHARM EL SHEIKH CITY - EGYPT

- We have the pleasure to receive a new member in this Forum. Our partners in this project are :
Academic Communities, creators, scientists, experts, thinkers, businessmen, all concerned with the dialogue among civilizations, with cultural diversity, and juxtaposition of cultures and peoples; finally the information Community in Europe and the Mediterranean sea basin.
- Since the conference of Barcelone in 1995, it was acknowledged that the traditions of the Mediterranean culture and civilization, besides the dialogue among cultures and the exchanges on the human, scientific and technological level are integral elements in the rapprochement between peoples as they sustain mutual understanding and make the image of these peoples in the eyes of each other more better.
- This forum enjoys all the components for rejuvenating the Euro-Mediterranean partnership to improve respect and mutual understanding through the open dialogue and the interaction with concrete programmes.
In the Forum you will enjoy every thing as you will see and discover the Euro-Mediterranean cultural tradition and the common history. You are not only passing your time in Sharm El Sheikh City (city of peace), but also in a place that radiates all kinds of affection and intimacy. It is up to you to share in creating one cosmic civilization characterized by tolerance, even with differences, and welcoming the cultural diversity of Euro-Mediterranean civilizations.
- We are in great need of deeper cooperation and more acquaintance, if we want to coexist as affectionate neighbours in the Forum's residence homes. There we shall know each other better and more closely, and respect our cultural diversity. So the Forum will be a tool - one tool only, but a tool of agreed importance to encourage our cultural diversity, sustain tolerance maintain respect of cultural rights, and work actively to develop culture of peace, dialogue and exchange of information on national, regional and international levels.
- The project is located within a tourism development center, which is an integrated area planned for tourism development under a center-wide master plan, to ensure compatibility between land use, functions and activities.
- Resort Layout and design. The architecture can take its geometry from the natural landscape, low in profile, natural in materials and Euro-Med cultural Heritage and utilizing simple isolated footings for foundation.

ECO-HOUSE

Salam City (Sharm El Shiekh – Egypt)

For the purpose of encouraging a new tourism product bearing indigenous cultural features.

To meet the needs and requirements of tourists in our present time- and to establish an integrated system of unique experiences.

1) Our new Customer for : Cultural Tourism

Culture is formally recognized as one of the many factors of development, not a luxury, as it attracts seventy million tourists travelling abroad for cultural purposes. It is the most important to face the challenges of our present age and globalization. Attention must be paid to the ever increasing role undertaken by international tourism in building public opinion and spreading culture .

2) Our new Customer works to motivate creativity to define the meaning (content) of Dream Community and its activities that are based upon emotions, experiences and even tales.

And to introduce and initiate the dream community as Mediterranean partners in a partnership agreement with the forum.

3) In this context our newcomer (Customer) in the field of :

Tourism of " Satisfaction with a certain issue" provides a more elaborate picture for an ideal, cosmic idea exemplified in :

tolerance – meetings – Communication – rapprochement on the level of individuals, Communities and people – the defence of cultural diversity.

4) All this led to overcome completely the conservative attitudes of tourists, so they attained the Tourism of Love.

It is the more appropriate to the welfare of human beings and their prosperity, and to produce the best common experiences, and the strongest Friendships.

5) It is encouraging and more interesting for our new Customer to seek Tourism for comfort, happiness and peace of mind.

The buildings that suit the environment better are the most suitable for humans to live in, besides his spiritual tranquility. They are there in residence homes in the eco-house.

6) To be opened up to civilizations and cultures through displaying, promoting and marketing artefacts and works of art, provide many opportunities in the field of international marketing in an Euro- Mediterranean tourism market in the artifacts Tourism.
